To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Tim Stensrud

It was a pleasure to work with Mr. Stensrud. He possesses a unique combination of creativity, sensitivity to my needs, practicality and respect for my opinion.

Mr. Stensrud made use of every available square foot of space to create an office which I am extremely proud of and one for which I have received numerous compliments. I am impressed with his understanding of the needs associated with a dental practice. His meticulous attention to detail avoided any unnecessary construction errors resulting in an efficient and practical design.

My association with Mr. Stensrud was most fortunate. In a short period of time I was able to develop an office which meets all my needs as well as provides a pleasant atmosphere for my staff and my patients. Mr. Stensrud made me feel as if my project was a priority and nothing was too much trouble, whether it was with the original architectural plans or developing the interior decor. I have only good feelings and positive comments of my dealings with Mr. Stensrud. I would feel confident in recommending his professional services to anyone.

Sincerely,
