To Whom It May Concern:

My partner, Dr. Alan Alton and I recently completed extensive renovations to our offices in Sherwood Park. The scope of our work required lengthy lease negotiations with the landlord, detailed planning, innovative use of space and sharp eye for color and fabric selection. We were very fortunate in being able to retain the services of Mr. Tim Stensrud of Tim Stensrud Design throughout every stage of our renovations from beginning to end.

Mr. Stensrud was a true professional in every sense of the word and proved invaluable in every area where design expertise was needed. No detail was too small (nor problem too big) that he was not able to provide a creative, ingenious solution. The final product speaks for itself; the response from our patients has been overwhelming.

In short, Dr. Alton and I have no reservations in highly recommending the services of Mr. Tim Stensrud.

Yours truly,

Dr. C. McAuley
